End of Life Care (EOLC) has an impact on everyone - don’t leave it to chance...

An event showcasing how working together in Nottinghamshire is improving EOLC

Wednesday 15 May 2013
Trent Vineyard, Lenton Lane,
Nottingham NG7 2PX
9.00 am — 4.30 pm

Clinicians from different care settings will discuss how joint working and the sharing of good practice within Nottinghamshire has improved End of Life Care and how they have achieved this.

Showcasing some of the positive work that has been implemented we invite you to come along and discuss how we can work together to further improve on End of Life Care.

Overview
- National and local speakers
- Personal stories from those who have experienced End of Life Care first hand
- Case studies
- How to look after yourself
- The impact on families
- An opportunity to find out how you can become an End of Life Champion
- “Don’t leave it to chance” - a workshop to discuss how we build on current success and your chance to contribute your views

Who should attend?
Staff who are caring for adults at the end of their life from:
- Nottinghamshire Healthcare
- Nottinghamshire County Council
- Independent Care Sector in Nottinghamshire
- Nottinghamshire County GPs/
- Practice staff who are caring for adults at the end of life.

All levels of discipline are welcome to attend

To book a place on the End of Life Care Conference please contact:
David Moss - Eventpro UK
david@eventprouk.com
Quoting Ref: EP2335

Free to attend